

Foster Family Gift Baskets

Movie Night

Give the gift of a night (in) at the movies! A perfect low-key family evening during an otherwise busy time of year!

Ideas: Movies (or Redbox certificate), popcorn, and candy

Game Night

Nothing better than a weekend of board games on a cold and rainy weekend in! Even better with some hot chocolate.

Ideas: All ages games, dice & cards, family board games, hot cocoa and snacks!

Weekend Activity

It can be expensive to take your family out on the town. Help our families make memories together this holiday season!

Ideas: Movie gift cards, tickets to the zoo or children's museum, add a gift card for gas.

Craft Kit

Kids love to make handmade art and gifts. Put together some supplies for their creativity to take over!

Ideas: Paper, stickers, markers, scrapbooking supplies and more!

Parent Stress Relief

Don't forget about mom and dad! Especially during the holidays, they are giving so much to the kiddos in their home. They deserve to be pampered!

Ideas: Journals, bath and body items, candles, gift certificate for a massage, or a good book.

Family Meal Prep

Make dinner and dessert fun and easy for the whole family by giving them (most) everything they need for a home-cooked meal!

Ideas: Non-perishable food items like, noodles, seasonings, pie crust, apples, etc. Include a recipe and a grocery gift card!

Snow Day

Kids love to play in the snow! Put together a basket for a day in a winter wonderland.

Ideas: Gift certificate to Crystal Mountain (Good for skiing, snowshoeing, sledding, and gondola rides), warm weather clothes, hot cocoa.

Date Night

Parents need a night off! Getting out of the house for one night this holiday season can make all the difference in refreshing their spirits and mindset.

Ideas: Restaurant and movie gift card, or tickets to the theater, maybe even a new movie or game to keep kids entertained with the babysitter.
