

3/4/18: Foundations Week 5 - Doctrine of Salvation -- Group Discussion Questions

Remember!! These are suggestions! Tailor this to the personality of your Group...

Welcome & Intro: High/Low: Have everyone share a high and a low from their week.

Intro Questions:

- From the Foundations: 260 Day Reading Plan: what's something that stood out to you this week?

Listeners' Guide: Be sure to take notes so you will be fully engaged and ready to participate in your brief time of discussion after the teaching! Pastor Scott Brewer outlines several key points in relation to the doctrine of salvation. Make note of key points and supporting scripture references that stand out to you from the following:

- God's response to the broken relationship we have with him as a result of the fall:

- Three possibilities (opportunities) for humanity:

- 5 points of salvation:

- 3 important values that should be held by Christ followers:

Video Response Discussion (Remember: CHOOSE ONLY those that fit your Group!)

- What are some things from Pastor Scott's teaching that felt meaningful or challenging to you? Any scriptures that were key for you?
- What were the 5 points of salvation that Pastor Scott outlined?
- Which of Pastor Scott's 5 points of salvation most stood out to you and why?
- Near the end of his talk, Pastor Scott details 3 responses we should have because of the gift of salvation. What are these responses? Do you find it difficult to respond in any of these ways? In the coming week, how might you put these responses into practice?
- Pastor Scott talked much of the fact that salvation is God's work. How could this knowledge encourage you in gospel conversations?

Break for smaller group Prayer:

- Have everyone take a moment for silent reflection on the group conversation. What does God most want me to learn, what action is God calling me to take?
- Share reflection responses - and then personal prayer requests
- Pray for each other's requests AND the actions to which God is calling them.
